The Explosion at Bala Hassar
—Yakob Kahn's Abdication.

in the Spanish Provinces.

Total Loss 30,000,000 Francs.
2,000 Houses Destroyed and 1,500 Lives Lost.

SPAIN.

Madrid, Oct. 20.—Further inundations have occurred in the provinces of Almeria and Alicante. Several persons were killed and much damage done to property. In the Madrid and Alicante districts, 2,000 houses were destroyed and it is believed that 100 persons perished by the floods. The damage to property is estimated at $30,000,000 francs.

A later telegram from Murcia states that 670 bodies have been already found. It is believed over 1,500 perished.

THE KING'S MARRIAGE.

Vienna, Oct. 20.—The Duke de Bahlen, Spanish envoy extraordinary, has arrived to demand the hand of the Archduchess Marie Christine in marriage with Alfonso, King of Spain. After this formality the archduchess will make a solemn renunciation of her rights of succession to the Austrian throne in the presence of the imperial family and Duke de Bahlen. It is expected the Archduchess, accompanied by her mother, will leave Vienna, November 20th, for Paris, remaining there two days to see King Francis and Queen Isabella. Her royal highness will then proceed to Madrid, and will then be conducted by the ministers of war and foreign affairs with royal honors to Pardo palace, near Madrid, where she will sojourn eight days previous to the marriage, which will take place in the Alcazar Church the 27th or 28th of November. The king's birthday is the 28th.

AFGHANISTAN.

THE BALA HASSAR MAGAZINE EXPLOSION.

London, Oct. 20.—A dispatch from Ale Key, October 19th, says: "The cause of the explosion of the magazine of Bala Hassar is unknown. The first explosion occurred at half past 1 and the second at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Another explosion is apprehended. The magazine, it is believed, contained 320,000 shot and shell, a large number of Snyder rifles and six tons of powder. One man of the 88th regiment, twenty-one Greeks, six camp followers and many Afghans were killed by the explosion."

THE AMBER'S ABDICATION.

A correspondent at Simla says: "Abdication is probably the wisest course for Yakob Khan. We may now place on the throne a man of position, and one on whom friendship we rely. It may be difficult to find a man who may succeed the ameer, and when found he may at first require active support, but the task will be light compared with that of upholding a weak and irresponsible puppet like Yakob Khan."

FOREIGN NOTES.

Von Bulow, the German secretary of state for foreign affairs, died today at Frankfort on the Main.

The Tekke Turcomans have received several thousand reinforcements commanded by a son of the Khan of Merv.

Eagles to the amount of £50,000 were withdrawn from the Bank of England Saturday for the United States.

The Swedish Arctic exploring steamer Vigor, with Prof. Nordenstjern on board, arrived at Kebnek on the 14th inst.

The radicals of Lyons have nominated Louis Garel, a pensioned communist, for the municipality. Blanqui has gone to Lyons to help Garel.

Aleko Pasha, governor of Eastern Roumelia, has declined the sultan's invitation to visit Constantinople, notwithstanding his former promise to do so.

The Spanish cortex will probably release the province of Murcia from taxes on account of the loss by floods. The water is falling and no further trouble is expected.

A Vienna correspondent says the disturbances on the Osman frontier and the murder of the British deputy commissioner by the Nusrah Hagan need cause no anxiety, as the Naga hill tribes are marauders whom the presence of British troops will speedily reduce to submission.

Leban Troubles.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Several hundred coal miners of the Bellville, Ill., district, held a mass meeting at a French village about eight miles from there, this morning, and gave their relations with mineowners pretty free discussion. No formal action was taken, but the indications were, that at the adjourned meeting this afternoon, a strike will be determined upon and formally announced.

Harve, Oct. 20.—Arrived, the steamship France, from New York.

THE INDIANS.

A Halt Called on Merritt—Negotiations for Peace.

The Utes Who Did the Mischief to Be Surrendered.

Camp on White River, four miles north of agency, Colorado, Oct. 17.—This afternoon Gen. Merritt and command returned to this point, the orders from Washington being to suspend operations against the Utes and await orders either at White River or Bear River, as negotiations for peace are in progress, it being understood that the hostiles agreed to surrender the warriors engaged in the recent depredations. It is probable that the combined commands of Merritt and Gilbert will remain for the present at this point, although definite details are known as to their future movements. In the event of peace being established, it is altogether probable that a permanent military post will be constructed either at Bear River or the agency.

SAVED.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—E. L. Mansfield telegraphs the commissioner of Indian affairs, from Rawlins, that he was in the employ of the late Indian agent Meeker, from August, 1878, and that he escaped the fate of other employees by being sent with a dispatch to Capt. Dodge, on the 26th ult., and awaits at Rawlins any instructions the commissioner may desire to give.

THE NEW MEXICAN TROUBLES.

Santa Fe, Oct. 20.—The hundred citizens who left Musilla, last Tuesday, to relieve the settlements of Santa Barbara and Colorado from savages, returned Friday. They found the bodies of ten Mexicans and eight Indians. They had been killed by Indians, the wagons destroyed and teams captured. Four other dead Mexicans and the body of Wm. J. Jones, killed

ED. CARPENTER will probably be taken to the reform school this evening.

Tony Trenton did the handwork at a laundress, last night at the police station.

The fall meeting of the "Sporting" Society will take place one week from to-morrow.

Mr. Tidd, agent of R. D. Wood & Co., pipe layers etc., of Philadelphia, in the city.

Barney Looe owned a buggy yesterday morning; now he owns the remnants of one. He had a runaway.

A caravan of hunters bent on destruction to game were seen at the south depot this morning.

The bands of Louise Hemlin and Henry Zermachin were proclaimed in Emanuel Church yesterday.

Harry Snyder, so called, attracted the usual amount of attention at the Globe last night. Whisky did it.

Thirty men employed in Shurick & Old's stave factory struck to-day for an advance from 28 to 35 cents.

Constable Manuel sold a fiery equine on the square this morning. The sale was all on the square, of course.

E. A. K. Hackett, the good looking editor of that stamp democratic paper, the Bluffton Banner, is in town to-day.

TO BE HANGED.

Syracuse, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Greenfield, convicted of the murder of his wife, has been sentenced to be hanged in Cusadagua, on November 12th.

TO KILLED BY AN OFFICER.

Memphis, Oct. 20.—Officer J. D. Jackson, colored, this morning shot and killed Green Smith, colored, a chicken thief, who resisted arrest and attempted to stab the officer with a bowie knife. The verdict of the coroner's jury exonerated Jackson.

YELLOU FEVER.

FIRST REPORT.

Memphis, Oct. 20.—No new cases have been reported to-day.

Judge J. D. Adams died this morning at 9 o'clock.

A very light frost was perceptible in many places beyond the city limits last night.

Quarantine will be rigidly enforced until safety is announced.

SECOND REPORT.

Nou—Six cases were reported to the board of health, David Wertz, C. R. G. McDonald, L. Cook, Rev. H. Williams, Berry, Debris and C. Jones, the last colored.

Mr. Mary J. Wade died of fever this morning at Forrest City, Ark. There are nine people now sick in that city.

There was a telegram received from Washington, D. C., authorizing officers to give a sufficient force to picket roads leading into town. After this date no one will be allowed to enter or leave that place without a special permit.

EVERYTHING indicates that the water works are going to be botched in the erection, and that when finished, a large portion of the work will have to be done over at an immense expense. The people are not encouraged.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
Believing, as the SENTINEL sincerely does, that the success of the democratic party is essential to the prosperity and welfare of the country, it earnestly desires to see the democratic leaders adopt such a course and pursue such a policy as shall ensure success beyond peradventure in the great contest in 1880. The underlying principles of the democratic party are the very same principles which are the foundation of our system of government.

These principles are held by a large majority of the voters of the United States. If the democratic party will remain loyal to these principles, it is assured of a long lease of power; but if it falters in its support of them, if it wanders off after strange gods, if it submits to unwise, unpatriotic or timid leadership, its defeat is certain, and will be undeserved.

The democratic party stands for the integrity of the states; for the broadest personal liberty of every citizen, however humble; for the honest fulfillment of all public obligations; for a sound and stable financial system; for rigid economy in public expenditure; for freedom of trade and commerce; for purity and honesty in administration; for opposition to the centralizing and monarchical tendencies of the republican party; to interference with the rights of the citizen by federal election statutes, sanctuary laws and other similar measures; and to the encroachments of powerful corporations, soulless monopolies and corrupt moneyed men upon the rights of the people.

The democratic party is and always has been predominantly the poor man's party. Its membership consists mainly of the bone and sinew of the union—of the intelligent mechanics, the skilled artisans, the industrious laborers, the sturdy farmers—in fact of the toilers and producers of the land. The republican party boasts that it contains among its members the rich and aristocratic elements of the country, and the democratic party is not disposed to dispute the doubtful honor.

Now, what is needed to give to the grand old democratic party a new and prolonged lease of power is sturdy and rigid adherence to the great principles we have enumerated; the nomination of candidates who are in thorough accord with those principles and whose names will command public confidence; and an attitude of firm opposition to lawlessness and mob violence all over the country, and to all wild schemes of inflation and repudiation of whatever description. The democratic party must not allow the enemy to place it, for one moment, in a false position before the country. Its attitude must be firm, unequivocal and unyielding. It must not for one moment even seem to tolerate any measures tending, however remotely, to a reopening of the great questions which were settled by the war.

As we have said, success is within the reach of the democratic party. Its dawning day, the coming to be pursued by the leaders is obvious.

It should be from this time forward no turning to the right nor to the left; no concessions to timid or treacherous or demagogues; no dallying for the sake of a trifling truce with unsound or dishonest doctrines; no compromise with error. Some bad mistakes have been made by the party, for which it has suffered, but they are not of any moment, because that their bad effects cannot be entirely obviated by the adoption of the right policy for the future.

STATE POLITICS.

The Delphi Times bows lowly for the "Hicksites."

The Hartford City Telegraph is for the "Hempsteadites."

The Michigan City Dispatch says:

Grant has "done" California, has now gone to Oregon, and still the boom ex-bands.

The Decatur Democrat thinks the candidates next year will be Sherman and Tilden.

The Evansville Courier says:

The democratic party is greater than the greatest man it has, and will survive all our leadership.

The Anderson Democrat says:

The "Hicksites" boom" for president is not really looks like Hendrickson's coming man.

The Decatur Democrat thinks that

Frank Bush is the best democrat in Ohio, but he never follows strange roads.

Speaking of Tilden the Wabash

Courier says:

Samuel is the happy faculty of saying something every time he gets to the podium.

The Wabash Courier confesses to having a soft side for Gen. Hancock, and believes he could whip the radi-cas as easily as anybody.

The Indianapolis Herald says:

The Wabash Courier says that Gen. Reub

Williams is willing to decline a nomination for governor in favor of his friend, and that it is to be done.

The Wabash Courier says:

The Fort Wayne SENTINEL very sensi-

ably concludes that there is plenty of time to select a candidate for the nomination, but not to be held before

May or June, and a couple of months is long enough to talk about the prospective candidate.

The Wabash Courier takes a hopeful view of the political situation. It says:

Ohio is not essential to democratic success in the presidential contest next year.

The election has been cast for the republican candidate and doubtless will be next year. Democrats have never included it in their calculations.

One hundred mounted Teek's Turco man attacked, on the 15th of September

a part of the Russian expedition surveying the Amud Bay, but were repulsed. The expedition was very heartily received on arriving in Afghan territory.

The magazine of Bald Head has been blown up. Twenty-seven of the British force and many of the Afghans were killed. Fighting has been renewed at Serkac. The position was held by ninety Sepoys against heavy odds. The enemy left twenty-five dead.

CRIMES AND CASUALTIES.

John Walker, a cattle dealer at London, Ont., has absconded. Liabilities

$30,000. Donald McLean, an addresser of Walker's paper to a large amount, is also missing.

Miss Lulu George, who shot herself, at Cincinnati, two weeks ago, out of grief for the death of her lover, has recovered sufficiently to start her home in Bonaparte, Ia.

Albert Granger, son of one of the wealthiest foundries of Louisville, shot and dangerously wounded his wife, at Woodland Garden, Sunday night. Jealousy was the cause.

Sunday morning, at 4 o'clock, J.

H. McBride, an American express messenger, was knocked down at Carrie, Ill., by foot pads, and robbed of $1,500 and gold watch. No trace of the bandits.

A coroner's inquest is being held on the body of John Moore, who was found dead, in his little shoe shop at St. Louis. It is believed that an attempt was made to rob the old man, that the party, or leaders, rather strayed so far from their duty. They knew that it was the duty of the party to advocate

what they knew that he was an extremist; and they knew equally as well that the nation had become odious to the world. Resumption was no longer a leading issue. Resumption, disastrously brought it as it was, was a fixed fact. Money matters were easier. Crop were all that could be desired.

Had the democratic convention put in nomination a man who could have gone before the people with sound and democratic financial ideas and a desire to return to the old time principles of the party, then we would have had a different result.

The Exchange Mill, owned by D.

D. Mangum, on East street, New York, was damaged to the extent of $30,000 and the stock of grain $20,000 more by fire early Sunday morning.

Lawrence & Co.'s salt house and other property were damaged $10,000 by water. The loss amounted to $100,000.

Sixty thousand dollars worth of goods were destroyed, $25,000 worth of machinery and $25,000 loss on the building. The loss was not fully covered by insurance.

There was a big fire at Big Rapids,

Mich., at 2 o'clock Sunday morning.

The fire broke out in the Mason

House, the contents of which were destroyed. Loss $10,000 to $15,000.

The boarders were heavy losers.

The fire was destroyed but the horses and carriages were saved. The following are the names of the principal losers:

E. W. Jodin, slight; Chas.

Milner, druggist, heavy; insured; G. H.

Travis, clothing, light; L. D. Green, grocer, light; insured; L. C. Campion, jewelry, light; Miss Carrie Thompson, millinery, light; Dr. Eldridge, owner of building, heavy, insured; A. S. Hobart & Co., books, large, insured; F. Fairman, bank; Miss Weston, milliner and fancy goods; J. B. Upton, law office; the Pacific House; A. Steffens, clothing; G. M. Crawford, grocer; the American Express office; Leggett & Bros., groceries; L. G. Lau, confectionery, all slightly damaged.

The coroner at Brooklyn is unable to withdraw from Mrs. Jennings' head that part of the rocket which penetrated it last Thursday night, although he has used a pair of gas-nippers for the purpose.

The rocket is imbedded in the base of the skull. It is not yet ascertained who fired the fatal fire-work. Several persons have been arrested, but released on bail.

Persons from Chunky Gold Mountain, N. C., report that indications of earthquake disturbances began Thursday, and the earth seems to be giving way and the mountain sinking.

THE CITY.

Pay your county taxes.

The grain markets continue excited.

Has your wife struck you for a fall?

The Wabash boys will dance on the 28th.

That exposition building must be built.

Pipe for the water works is arriving daily.

Buffalo Bill opens at Toledo to-night.

The county commissioners are in session.

Mrs. R. C. Bell is visiting friends at Muncie.

Buffalo Bill had a $600 house Saturday night.

There will be a ball in amusements for a time.

Jas. M. Kane has returned from New York.

The Olympic has been prolific of sensations recently.

St. Peter's Church is making great preparations for its fair.

A. C. Treatman and wife have returned from New York.

Ed Carpenter, aged fourteen, will go to the reform school.

Prof. Cooke and assistants are stopping at the Mayer House.

The city council will meet in adjourned session this evening.

The St. Peter's fair will open at the Academy next Friday evening.

"Standing room only" was the sign at the Academy Saturday night.

Mrs. H. J. G. Bartholomew, of Wabash, is visiting friends in this city.

The slander suit of Sophie Gers vs. Anton Dierslein has been withdrawn.

Clive Graves, agent of the Empire Line, returned to-day from Indianapolis.

The Underhill marble works put up a fine $400 monument in Adams county last week.

A new bridge is to be built across Cedar Creek at Leo, in place of the one that recently tumbled.

The Academy of Music has been secured for the National Temperance Convention, which will shortly meet in this city.

Mrs. Abner Kelsey, of Zanesville, who had her leg broken while returning from the fair a few weeks ago is almost recovered.

A new system of selling reserved seats for the Academy, by which duplication is absolutely impossible, has been adopted.

The relief societies are getting ready for the winter campaign. They should be liberally supported by our benevolent citizens.

The atmosphere is heavily laden with scandal, much of which is the coinage of a lively imagination and has little foundation.

Prof. Cooke will give another of his extraordinary seances at the Academy to-night. This will be positively his last appearance in this city.

Parker Byers, the champion billiardist, failed to arrive Saturday night, as expected, and lovers of the "gentleman's game" missed an unexpected treat.

According to Miss Selma Crawford, Prof. Cooke's assistant Grant will be the next president and Theo. Thiene will be married in fifteen years to a widow eight years his senior.

It is rumored that the water works trustees will tender their resignations to the council to-night, on account of the low salaries. If they are accepted a special election will be ordered.

Rev. Jonathan Haskell, the zealous evangelist, with his wife, inaugurated a temperance movement in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church last evening—Pittsburgh Leader. The next issue, however, states that he drew a slim crowd and was not a success—except as a fraud, might have been added.

Taking will shortly lecture in this city.

Confidence men in town—lots of 'em.

John O'Rourke has returned from Chicago.

The circuit jury will report to-morrow.

The Schucker divorce case has been withdrawn.

John Reuss is Otto Cummerow left for Toledo yesterday.

The Sweeny murder trial will positively begin next Monday.

The Little River bridge, on the Bluffton plank road, has been swept away.

The Madrigal Club will present Pinocchio at the Academy early next month.

The following letter to J. J. Perrin, the administrator of the Purdue estate, explains itself.

The Fort Wayne SENTINEL is fulfilling their Masonic Temple contract at the specified time.

The deposition of J. R. Strangman, in the case of Strangman vs. Bass, et al. was taken on Saturday.

A number of incurably insane persons will shortly be transferred from the poor house to the new asylum at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Davenport, recently of the Olympic, left for Philadelphia Saturday night to recover the child that was stolen from her last summer.

The SENTINEL's market reports are being generally complimented for their fulness and accuracy. It is the only paper in the city that gives the local markets correctly, and besides it prints telegraphic reports of the produce markets of New York, Baltimore, Toledo and Chicago, the Cleveland petroleum market and the New-York money and stock market.

RELIGIOUS.

Trinity Episcopal Church is still short of a rector.

Most of the churches were well attended yesterday.

The Rev. W. H. McFarland returned from Vicksburg Saturday night.

A temperance meeting was held at the Reformed Men's Hall yesterday afternoon.

Special Sabbath school services were held at the Third Presbyterian Church yesterday.

Bishop Dwenger administered the sacrament yesterday in the Catholic Church of Portland.

Rev. M. Crosley preached the funeral sermon of Reuben Miller, the Kendallville suicide.

Rev. T. G. Carter, of Talleahoma, Tenn., preached at the Berry Street M. E. Church yesterday.

Fort Wayne has a suburban corner called Goweeville. The young men from the city appear on one side to "gambo" on the green.

Rev. A. E. Malin of the Wayne Street M. E. Church, preached at the Plymouth Church yesterday morning.

The Rev. W. A. Schaeffer, of Philadelphia, preached an able discourse to the Sabbath school teachers last evening.

Rev. W. A. Schaeffer, of Philadelphia, preached an able discourse to the Sabbath school teachers last evening.

The Young Ladies' Sodality, of the Cathedral, held its regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at St. Bernhard Hall. The sodality is in a very flourishing condition and has 327 members with a fair prospect of a continual increase.

THE RAILROADS.

An excursion party from Pittsburgh to Petoskey passed through the city by Friday.

Grand Rapids, Mo., reporter struck Supt. O'Rourke for "the news" and was gratified by hearing: "Travel is good, freight business is large, the road is in excellent order, we are all well and happy."

Plymouth Democrat: The Pittsburg &amp; Fort Wayne road has been prospecting for the purchase of the Plymouth, Kankakee &amp; Pacific railroad, making the northeastern terminus at Plymouth. It will be a valuable feeder for the Fort Wayne road, and the gain to Plymouth is too apparent to need proof.

The manufacture of the new cars for the Wabash has commenced at the shop in Toledo. The frame work of about 130 is ready to put up, but as yet it has been impossible to secure the bar iron necessary for putting them together. The wheels, axles and the timber necessary for the construction of the whole six hundred have been obtained.

The Wabash's poetical advertisement contains the following:

J. is for Justice, which some say is blind, and almost now through corruption, but Justice has spoken the truth from its throne.

In classing the Wabash the greatest road known.

In this broad assertion she did not say "she."

For Justice is not of that treacherous kind.

AMUSEMENTS.

BUFFALO BILL.

The Buffalo Bill Company had the largest audience of the season at the Academy Saturday evening, "Standing room only" being the sign before the curtain rose. The entertainment was on the sole-drama order and seemed to give immense satisfaction to the audience. Buffalo Bill's shooting was very good, but young Simeon of this city, the greatest, was the Indian chief attracted much attention and seemed to please the crowd mightily.

VALPARAISO MESSENGER.

Judge Brackenridge of Fort Wayne, and A. C. Capron of Plymouth, were in attendance on the circuit court last Friday. They are both good lawyers.

Wabash Alline "Wabash Nell."

The Wabash, from its copies from the SENTINEL, the account of "Wabash Nell," a recent publication, is the Chihuahua of the West, and more successful than it has ever been. "Naughty, Fishy, Fishy—Wabash Nell?" When "Tooth Name" is Tschimpfing, Higgins, Aspinwall, Gramp and Fifer.

KERR MURRAY.

He Will Not Remove to Lafayette This Fall.

Possibility that He Will Not Leave Fort Wayne.

To treat the Sins and Revels in the stars of the Footlights—Martial Campbell, of this City, invades the Dressing Room and Arrests "Tish" on a Warrant Charging with Having Figured in the Role of Pickpocket. On last Monday night Haas's Opera House was contaminated by the presence of "Fanny May's Blondes," composed of half-a-dozen brazen-faced, water-logged prostitutes. Among the number was Tschimpfing Higgins, a Wabash product whose latter years have been passed in Fort Wayne, where she is regarded as one of the worst specimens of the lower demi-monde. Her theatrical life was of short duration; she had joined the "Blondes" at Fort Wayne and come direct to Wabash, including that her "first" appearance on any stage should be made in her native city.

The Madrigal Club will present Pinocchio at the Academy early next month.

The circuit jury will report to-morrow.

The Schocker divorce case has been withdrawn.

John Reuss is Otto Cummerow left for Toledo yesterday.

The Sweeny murder trial will positively begin next Monday.

THE CITY.

J. D. Cook is in town.

Now for buckwheat cakes.

John H. Bass has returned.

Charley Stockbridge is a pup.

Mrs. Frank Cosgrove is quite ill.

Mrs. James Gavin is dangerously ill.

There was a heavy frost last night.

The street car company meets to night.

Now get your coat from your uncles.

Misses Mary and Maggie Ragan are visiting their many friends at Dayton.

The Misses Odell and Eliza Collins, of Wabash, spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Miss Minnie Lash, of Roanoke, who has been visiting Miss Mamie Jerman, returned home to-day.

The St. Joe Rowing Club will meet to-night in their new quarters in the Central Hotel building.

The SENTINEL will shortly open up a hickory nut department, as every well regulated paper should.

Geo. J. E. Mayer, who now resides at Eaton Rapids, Mich., is in town shaking hands with his numerous friends.

There was an interesting tableau at the Mayer House last night. The audience numbered about fifty. "Fall down the blinds."

Rev. J. M. Woolpert leaves for Indiana this afternoon to visit his parents, and the supposition is he will join the hymeneal band before he returns.

Capt. Hettler and O. A. Simms have returned from Cadillac, Mich. The captain purchased 400,000 feet of lumber for the Pittsburgh shops in this city.

Robert Hervey, who is awaiting trial for assault on Dick Meyers, is spoken of as being of excellent family, and once himself stood very high in Wells county.

Capt. Hettler denies that he ever sent the SENTINEL a postal card, complaining of the condition of the alley next to No. 19 East Main street. It was evidently a forgery.

E. K. Dorr is in the city. East Thursday night, between Munroe and Connersville, he explained to the occupants of the car where was the best place to have a boil. He did not know there was a lady in the car, until her escort, with a voice like a bass drum, reminded him of the fact. Ed subsided.

Miss Edith Straughan is convalescing.

County Commissioner Hogan took his seat to-day.

The Union Lecture Association meets to-night.

The peepers are now equipped with dark lanterns.

Esquire Pratt filled the mayor's chair this morning.

Temperance meeting at the reformed men's hall to-night.

Miss Kittie Stemen to-day took charge of a school in Milan township. A buggy containing two young bloods was wrecked yesterday afternoon at the corner of Calhoun and Grand streets.

Miss Viola Wray, the 200-pound serio-comic vocalist, has gone to Grand Rapids to fill an engagement at the variety theater in that city.

It was Margaret Brown, and not Margaret Bloomfield, as stated in the SENTINEL who was tried in the criminal court last week for larceny.

A drunken trio—one man and two women—who were having a ride, came to grief Saturday afternoon at the corner of Harrison and Columbia streets.

Stan Frazer has resigned his position as deputy clerk of the United States court, owing to the thinness of his perquisites. It appears that our attorneys are taking their cases to Indianapolis in preference to filing them here. They should not do this.

Geo. J. E. Mayer to-day received a telegram from Eaton Rapids, Mich., announcing the death at that place, of his father-in-law, M. C. Churchill, Mr. Churchill died of paralysis and neuralgia of the heart, with which he had been afflicted a long time. His age was about seventy. Mr. Hayes leaves at 5 o'clock this evening for Eaton Rapids, accompanied by J. C. Peltier. Mr. Churchill's remains will be taken to Rockford, Ills., his former home, for burial.

THE RAILROADS.

Engine No. 127 is in the Pittsburgh shops for repairs.

Engine Lawrence, of the Pittsburgh, is now running engine No. 103. Judge Shene, of this city, presided at the Wilcox meeting in Toledo last Tuesday.

Engine No. 222 came out of the Pittsburgh shops last week, with a patent slide.

Steel rails are being laid on the Muncie.

Wabash engine 20 was turned out of the shop Saturday.

The railway insurance association will hold its convention in this city on the 24th inst.

There are two street cars at the south depot in route from St. Louis to Grind Rapids.

Mr. Wood, bridge carpenter on the Muncie, has just completed an inspection of all bridges on the line. They are in good condition.

Eight new locomotives are to be built by the Wabash in this city. Four will have large shell boilers for passenger and the other four are for freight.

A Couple of Tough Ones.

Tom Shaughnessy was up again this morning. Tom appears to have a life lease on cell No. 2 in the city glue factory, and he came in last night to assert his rights. His rights, however, were limited, and he would have received about $10 and costs only that the city attorney informed his honor that Tom had a special rate of $2 on account of his steady patronage. The mayor therefore fixed it at $5.

Leonard Beals hoped to God that he would never get snapp'd up that way again. The reporter sympathized with Leonard, and all he got was 12 days.

THE COURTS.

CIRCUIT.

Dismissed: August Montague vs. William Zuidel, James F. Morrison vs. Eliza Bruce, Calvin Vanacker vs. Samuel Miller.

JUDGMENT.

Joseph Omo vs. Joseph L. Johnson et al., not on, 50c.

PROBATE.

George W. Lewis appointed administrator to the estate of Phillip J. Lewis, deceased; bond, $100; Wilkes Gill, Esq., his solicitor.

Phillip W. Lewis appointed guardian of Charles A. Hartzell et al.; bond, $100; Goo W. Wilber, surety.

SUPERIOR.

JURY CASES.

The jury has been discharged until 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, when the following cases will be called for trial: Fickel vs. Shuman, Sergeant vs. Hines, Webster vs. Dillinger, Foster vs. Treadwell.

JUDGMENTS.

Daniel Walter vs. Eli Crammer, $125.

CRIMINAL.

August Hough was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year for burglary.

John Hough Smith received a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for grand larceny.

Lebanon Detrick and Edward Laraman pleaded guilty to violation of the liquor law, and were each fined $10 and costs.

The case of Rob. W. Harvey, for assault and battery on Dick Meyers, turned over to the county jail, and is now on trial before Judge Bostick and J. H. Dillinger.

JUSTICES.

BEFORE RYAN.

Milo Bragg and James Hite, for provoke on Frank V. V. Shell, were fined $1 and costs.

He also bound over Tom Kelley, a man who it is alleged tried to rob him.

F. W. Kelley, who was hit by Kelley, hit and knocked him, and it is a hard case all around.

A SUNDAY SPORE.

The SENTINEL is in receipt of a communication from a young lady of Nebraska detailing the sad experience of a party of young bloods, headed by J. D. of East Washington street, who went to Nebraska yesterday afternoon in a carriage looking for a house of ill-fame. They got to the wrong place and one of them was driven off by the young lady with a tea kettle, in her hand. He then went to another house, got a woman into his buggy and ran his horse in a disgraceful manner.

SPOOKS AND SPIRITS.

A Seance at the Academy Last Night.

Remarkable Tests and Demonstrations.

The entertainment given by Prof. Cooke last night, at the Academy of Music, was refined and select in every respect. A large number of the audience were agreeably disappointed in supposing that the whole entertainment would consist of some spiritualistic performances, in which no one would take any stock. On the contrary, it proved to be one of the most interesting exhibitions ever given in this city, comprising even slight hand and leg movements delusions, and spiritualistic demonstrations of all sorts.

THE CITY.

J. D. Cook is in town.

Now for buckwheat cakes.

John H. Bass has returned.

Charley Stockbridge is a papa.

Mrs. F. R. Cosgrave is quite ill.

Mrs. James Gavin is dangerously ill.

There was a heavy frost last night.

The street car company meets to-night.

Now get your coat from your uncle's.

Misses Mary and Maggie Ragan are visiting their many friends at Dayton.

The Misses Odell and Eliza Collins, of Wabash, spent Sunday in Fort Wayne.

Miss Minnie Lash, of Roanoke, who has been visiting Miss Mamie Jerman, returned home to-day.

The St. Joe Rowing Club will meet to-night in their new quarters in the Central Hotel building.

The SENTINEL will shortly open up a hickory nut department, as every well regulated paper should.

Geo. J. E. Mayer, who now resides at Eaton Rapids, Mich., is in town shaking hands with his numerous friends.

There was an interesting tableau at the Mayer House last night. The audience numbered about fifty. "Pull down the blinds."

Rev. J. M. Woolpert leaves for Indiana this afternoon to visit his parents, and the suppression is he will join the hymenial band before he returns.

Capt. Hettler and O. A. Simons have returned from Cadillac, Mich. The captain purchased 400,000 feet of lumber for the Pittsburgh shops in this city.

Robert Hervey, who is awaiting trial for assault on Dick Meyers, is spoken of as being of excellent family and once himself stood very high in Wells county.

Capt. Hettler denies that he ever sent the SENTINEL a postal card complaining of the condition of the alley next to No. 19 East Main street. It was evidently a forgery.

E. K. Dorr is in the city. Last Thursday night, between Muncie and Connersville, he explained to the occupants of the car where was the best place to have a boil. He did not know there was a lady in the car, until her escort, with a voice like a bass drum, reminded him of the fact. Ed

Miss Edith Straughan is convalescing. County Commissioner Hogan took his seat to-day.

The Union Lecture Association meets to-night.

The peepers are now equipped with dark lanterns.

Esquire Pratt filled the mayor's chair this morning.

Temperance meeting at the reformed men's hall to-night.

Miss Kittie Stemen to-day took charge of a school in Milan township.

A buggy containing two young bloods was wrecked yesterday afternoon at the corner of Calhoun and Grand streets.

Miss Viola Wray, the 300-pound semi-comic vocalist, has gone to Grand Rapids to fill an engagement at the variety theater in that city.

It was Margaret Bloom, and not Margaret Bloomhuff, as stated in the SENTINEL, who was tried in the criminal court last week for larceny.

A drunken trio—one man and two women—who were having a ride, came to grief Saturday afternoon at the corner of Harrison and Columbia streets.

Stan Frazer has resigned his position as deputy clerk of the United States court, owing to the thinness of the perquisites. It appears that our attorneys are taking their cases to Indianapolis in preference to filing them here. They should not do this.

To-night he proposes to give a thorough expost of every trick performed, and he will doubtless draw a good house.

SPOOKS AND SPIRITS.

A Seance at the Academy Last Night.

Remarkable Tests and Demonstrations.

A large number of the audience were agreeably disappointed in supposing that the whole entertainment would consist of some spiritualistic performances, in which no one would take any stock. On the contrary, it proved to be one of the most entertaining exhibitions ever given in this city, comprising even slight of hand and legerdemain delusions, and spiritualistic demonstrations of all sorts.

A number of cards were called by Miss Crawford, who was blindfolded while the cards were in the hands of the judges, who consisted of Messrs. Withers, Anderson, Sanford, Falkeer, Graff and Carey. The professor himself from knots which were tied so tightly by the committee, in the presence of the audience, that no chance of "foolishness" was discernible. All his tricks were done openly and above board without any chance of ordinary deception, as the committee were on the stage all the while.

To-night he proposes to give a thorough expost of every trick performed, and he will doubtless draw a good house.
